have an intriguing meaning where we intentionally use it to criticize the way people buried, by formed an imagined-reality of material-world deceit them. By rational-consciousness certainly we can form an opposite reality that released ourselves toward sane society.

It is basically mean also as to construct and/or manufacture, which we do on proposing good products to serve you. It is also consist of word of 'fabric' which in concrete is what we dealing with our textile work, when as a metaphor meaning is refer to twining human interaction through our works.

The Batik here is an ex-used fabric which mostly is 'Batik Tulis', from Special Districts of Yogyakarta and Surakarta that nowadays become rare to be produce anymore as certain circumstances. Combined here with our wooden range of product is how we want to put the piece into our sensed-reality.

Surrounding your contemporary life with the fabric that witnessed the life story beyond our own, the way we used to build our life thread by thread, day trough day, the same as yours and you. The wood is Pine (Pinus merkusii) from sustainable-managed forests of Indonesia.
